

SAPA

Sexual Aggression
Peer Advocates

Sexual Aggression Peer Advocates are college students who have received the most extensive training in assistance of survivors of sexual aggression. SAPAs have over 40 hours of training dealing with sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and harassment and help over 250 CMU students a year.

SAPA Provides

CONFIDENTIALITY

Free on-call service 24 hours a day, 7 days a week during the fall & spring semesters

Online advocacy/ SAPAchat
Advocacy & crisis intervention
Support for survivors & friends,
male or female

LGBT sensitive advocacy

Medical assistance

Legal advocacy

Counseling referrals

Contact Information

Crisis Line 774-2255

Online Advocacy www.sapa.cmich.edu

SAPA Programs

SAPA offers a variety of presentation programs dealing with sexual aggression tailored to any audience including:

The No Zebras freshman orientation program
A Survivor's Story program for all female or co-ed groups
A Men's Program

SAPA programs are offered free of charge to all campus groups & classes. To set up a presentation please contact us at www.sapa.cmich.edu or send an email for more details.

contact: 774-2255
www.sapa.cmich.edu

Sexual Aggression Peer Advocates

SAPA

774-2255

www.sapa.cmich.edu